

La'Toya Hagins

Gateway Team Assistant

As a mother of eight, La'Toya Hagins became a military spouse in 1997. La'Toya has five beautiful girls named Sei'Ara, Ma'Kayla, Aubrey, Aubreya, and Nevaeh, and three boys named Shaquille, Detravious, and Keith Jr. She has truly gained firsthand knowledge of the challenges of being a member of Security Forces' military spouses.

What is the number one thing military spouses do? Sacrifice

What is the hardest thing to do when you relocate? Find a job, finish school, etc.

What is the best attribute that a military spouse has? LOYALTY!

La'Toya attended TUI University in California and earned her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a concentration in Human Resources. She is currently working on her Masters with TUI as well as attending Macon State College in Georgia, working to obtain an Associate in Foreign Language with a focus on becoming fluent in Spanish. Like most military spouses, she has worked in a variety of fields from banking to insurance.

La'Toya is very passionate about helping people. She has volunteered for many different nonprofit organizations. With the personal knowledge of challenges military spouses go through, she is dedicated to help military spouses achieve their employment and educational goals.

La'Toya joined MSCCN in July 2010 and is excited and privileged to serve those who serve and the backbone behind them, their spouses.
